SPEAKER

Mr Jegatheesan Govintharaj,
*Senior Executive,
Law Reform, Policy & International Affairs of the Corporate Development & Policy Division, Companies Commission of Malaysia (SSM)*

Jegatheesan Govintharaj is a senior executive attached to the Law Reform, Policy & International Affairs Section of the Corporate Development & Policy Division. Amongst others, he is involved in conducting legal research to ensure that the laws and regulations administered by SSM remain updated. Jegatheesan specializes in corporate laws in particular the Limited Liability Partnerships. Before joining SSM, Jegatheesan served Metroplex Berhad as an Assistant Legal Manager in the Legal Department. Prior to that, he served the Citizens Advice Bureau in the United Kingdom as a Generalist Advisor. Jegatheesan graduated with an LLB (Hons) and holds an LLM in International Commercial Law both from Northumbria University, United Kingdom.

PERSPECTIVE

The Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) is governed by the Limited Liability Partnership Act 2012 (Act 743) and was enforced on 26 December 2012. LLP is a new form of business vehicle that would complement the traditional options of carrying on a business either by way of sole proprietorships, partnership or companies. LLP provides the protection of limited liability for its partners and flexibility of the partnership arrangement for the internal management of its business.
